Dear Honorable Chief Judge W.J. Haynes, JR.,

Please excuse me your honor, but Sir i am elated to properly inform you on the facts that i have recently received two seperate packages from the defendants Attorney 'James I. Pentecost of "Pentecost & Glenn, PLLC", enclosing a back door cross-examination and demands of "Production of Documents & Interrogatories" forms of relevance to our aforementioned case, as well as questioning me of my personal attachments outside of the relevance of our case.

Attorney 'James Pentecost, sent me a demand of requests first in 'May of 2013, + again the arrogant response in objections to my request for the defendant's "Production of Documents & Interrogatories" forms back in return. Your Honor, firstly i feel that their Attorney 'Mr. Pentecost, is pursuing the matters of our case outside of your judgement the professionalism of your courtroom and it's ruling's. Secondly, 'Mr. Pentecost has mentioned some allegations that i've never inquired of the defendant's. And Thirdly, due to the notes & records 'Mr. Pentecost presented shows all of my personal self claims & allegations pertaining to this case are factually true... That "yes" true indeed my cell-room sink fell off the wall onto me twice due to the weak fixtures of ~~sinks~~ caulking & anchor hooks, causing me to get drenched by the sink the 1st time early that morning while preparing for breakfast. Afterwards i showed the Pod's C/O & asked that this maintenance to come fix my sink, in which without me knowing due to me going to a
